

Demonstrating the Value and Contribution of Scotland's Existing Built and Historic Environment Across the National Performance Framework

- Adaptation/managing loss
- Biodiversity reservoirs
- Embodied energy
- Reuse and regeneration of existing buildings
- Stewardship of resources and assets
- Positive contributions towards net zero

- Wellbeing
- Social prescribing
- Identity and belonging
- Greenspace
- Healthy Buildings
- Air quality and toxicity

- Positive destinations
- Job creation
- Property maintenance
- Fuel poverty/energy efficiency
- Education opportunities

- Place and Identity
- Local jobs
- Resilience
- Stability
- Local Communities and Communities of interest

- Skills development
- Volunteering
- STEM and Education
- Apprentices

- Lifelong learning
- Platform for education opportunities
- Cross curriculum
- Skills development and training opportunity
- Apprentices

- Homes and good places
- Identity and security
- Resilience
- Health
- Education and skills

- Sustainable tourism
- National Identity
- Expertise and knowledge
- Cultural diplomacy
- Innovation

- Sustainable procurement
- Local delivery models
- Local supply chains
- Social enterprise opportunities
- Microbusiness networks

- Sustainable tourism
- Construction sector spend and jobs
- Cultural assets and brands
- Regeneration

- History, stories and folklore
- Culturally significant assets
- Crafts and skills
- Places and belonging
- Venues and events

